Providing Professional World Class Foreign Language Services for:

Government

We have enjoyed a long standing successful relationship with local governments and their prime contractors throughout NC. Bilingual Connections is a minority, woman owned firm

Healthcare

Treating patients is what you do best. When you can't communicate with them due to limited English proficiency it keeps you from delivering the best care possible.

Misunderstandings lead to thousands of serious and even deadly errors each year exposing healthcare providers to tragic and costly results.

Protect your patients and your team from unnecessary liability and risk. Our mobile language solutions provides your staff comprehensive packages which include translation of documents, interpretations, group language classes and staff training.

Legal/Finance/Human Resources Departments

Our mobile language solutions are an extension of your team. We treat all matters with the utmost confidentiality to reduce your liability and to provide the same level of care and service to all your clients and staff as you do.

Construction

Two of the most important goals on a job site are to keep all crew members safe and to complete work efficiently and effectively. Communication is a key factor in these two areas. Bilingual Connections provides builders and their teams the tools they need to better communicate.

Real Estate

Real estate sales teams strive to create a positive buying/selling experience for their clients. Having written material in their language allows clients to get all the information they need to make an educated decision on one of the largest transactions they will ever make.

Professional Translation

- We offer translation of documents including research proposals and reports,
- Training materials, and technical manuals.
- Marketing material and website content.
- Documents are edited by a second translator to ensure accuracy.

Professional Interpretation

- We offer on and off site interpretations in over 70 languages!
- Our interpreters convey every semantic element including tone, register, intention and feeling of the message
- Interpreters follow strict codes of ethics and interpretation protocols per MII.
- They are HIPAA trained and treat all information with the utmost confidentiality.

Foreign Language Classes

- We specialize in creating industry specific courses customized to the client's specific needs.
- We provide cultural awareness training for the workplace which is essential to communicating effectively with clients and other team members.
- Our instructors also teach a "How to Work With an Interpreter" Class
